R. F. CLENDENIN RESIGNS HIS POSITION WITH BANK.

Mr. Roy F. Clendenin, who for the past several years has been connected with the First National Bank and who at present is assistant cashier, Friday tendered his resignation to become effective October 1. The resignation of Mr. Clendenin was accepted reluctantly by the directors and officers of the institution.

Mr. Clendenin, who has been connected with the bank since its organization in 1902, will become connected with the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, in the capacity of special agent. He has been the local agent of the company since 1904, and the new position he is to assume comes as a reward for his earnest ability in the insurance business, which he conducted in connection with the position he held in the bank.

The general agency of the company is conducted by H. D. and C. D. Rodman, of Louisville.

Mr. Clendenin will establish his headquarters in this city, and will continue his active connection with the fire insurance agency of McClure & Clendenin. Mr. Ford Mann, clerk of the First National Bank, has been advanced to the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Clendenin. At a meeting of the directors of the institution held Saturday, the following resolutions in regard to his resignation were passed unanimously, which is an attestation of the high regard in which he was held:

Whereas, Mr. Roy F. Clendenin, Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank of Paris, Kentucky, has tendered his resignation, to become effective at the pleasure of this Board, in order that he may form business connections along other lines of work; and

Whereas, Mr. Roy Clendenin has been connected with this institution from its beginning to the present time, having been its first bookkeeper and its first assistant cashier, at all times, and in all circumstances, faithful, earnest, honest and loyal to the interests of the First National Bank, its stockholders and its patrons;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Board of Directors of the First National Bank of Paris, in session this August 30, 1913, that the resignation of Mr. Clendenin be, and the same is, hereby respectfully accepted, effective, if Mr. Clendenin will serve until that time, on October 1, 1913. This Board of Directors on behalf of the stockholders of this institution, is not unmindful of the obligations due a co-worker of the character, ability and manhood of Mr. Clendenin, and sincerely regrets that business opportunities which have presented themselves to him, make it necessary that he should sever his connection with the First National Bank;

Be it resolved, further, that the hearty good wishes of the Directors, and all others associated with the management of this institution go with Mr. Clendenin in his new field of work, and that we hereby make expression of sincere hope that the greatest possible success may attend his work, and be with him in all his future life;

Resolved further, that this resolution be spread upon the minute book, and that a copy thereof under the seal of the Bank be delivered to Mr. Clendenin by the Cashier of this institution.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES

—One of the best sales of real estate made in Harrison county was that made by Mrs. S. E. Cleveland through J. H. Magee, when her farm of 100 acres, about one and one-half miles east of Cynthiana, was sold to W. A. Small, of Tipton, Cedar county, Indiana. Mr. Small with his family will move to the farm next March and make it his future home.

THEATRICAL.

"The Divorce Question."

Rowland & Clifford's presentation of Wm. Anthony McGuire's intensely interesting argument against divorce will be seen at the Paris Grand on Sept. 12. The play treats the question of divorce as an individual, social and ethical problem, portraying a strong, vital, true situation of life as a premise to an argument which clearly demonstrates the futility of divorce as a means of social progress, inasmuch as it leads to the disintegration of the family, upon which rests the entire social structure, deprives children of their right to their parents and tends to foster that undeniable immoral and hurtful institution, polygamy.

No play of recent years has received the stamp of approval alike from press and pulpit and the clergy have gallantly repounded in the fight against the horrible social evil—divorce.

The phenomenal success of this play in all cities visited would indicate that reservation should be made immediately.

KENTUCKY CHALLENGE CUP STAYS WITH GAY.

J. D. Gay, of Pine Grove, Ky., won the Kentucky Challenge Cup at targets shot at on the grounds of the Fayette Gun Club Saturday afternoon. Mr. Gay tied with Frank C. Bell in the first round, each of them breaking 95 birds out of a possible 100, but in the shoot-off of 20 birds Mr. Gay broke 19 against Mr. Bell's 18.

Mr. Gay has held the cup for some time, having beaten C. B. Strother, of Winchester, for it, but at the end of that match Mr. Strother challenged Mr. Gay for another match and the Pine Grove marksman immediately accepted the challenge. In the match Saturday Mr. Strother broke 94 birds. The official score was as follows: Gay, 95; Bell, 95; C. B. Strother, 94; H. Strother, 94; VanDeren, 89; Barrow, 88; Wheeler, 88; Clay, 86; Carter, 77.

Homemade Cedar Chest.

Get a large pine packing box. Hinge on the lid and putty up the cracks if there are any, but it is better to get one without cracks. Purchase a bottle of cedar oil from the druggist and paint the inside of the box with this, being sure that the oil soaks into all crevices. Use the oil plentifully, and when thoroughly dry line the box with cambric. Cover the outside with any preferred material. The cedar oil will retain its odor for years, and is as much disliked by moths as the cedar wood itself.

Story of a Precocious Five-Year-Old.

Bill Bowen of Atchison tells the Globe of a woman and her little son who were on a Central Branch train the other day. "Pares, please," the conductor said, and the woman handed him one ticket. "Boy will have to pay, too, madam," said the conductor. "Oh, but he's only five years old," she replied. "Looks mighty old to be only five years old," snapped the conductor. "Yes, he does, but you see, he has been doing a lot of worrying," she answered.

Good Fertilizer for Ferns.

Nitrate of soda dissolved in water should be given to ferns that are small or weak, but do not make the proportion of nitrate more than one-quarter of an ounce to the gallon, but large plants, and those of vigorous growth should be watered with a solution in proportion of one-half an ounce of nitrate to the gallon. Apply about every ten days. Soot and salt are also good.

Wonderful Human Stomach.

The human stomach as diagrammed in the encyclopedia resembles the map of South America, and as a potentiality exercises the revolutionary characteristics of that realm. It varies in size; in youth being longer than thick, and reaching from the chin to the heels; in ripe maturity being thicker than long, and reaching from the back two feet beyond the natural plumb line.—American Magazine.

Joviality Out of Place.

"Your mistake was in misunderstanding your country," said Mr. Plowden, to a man and woman found dancing in the street and charged with disorderly conduct at Marylebone. "This is not a country where people can afford to be jovial. You must cultivate a spirit of melancholy if you want to be safe. Go away and be as sad as you can."—London Tit-Bits.

Talleyrand and Josephine.

Talleyrand, the notorious French statesman, friend of Napoleon and ambassador at the English court, was designed for a military career, but an accident, when one year old, rendered him a cripple for life. His cunning cleverness, political penetration, adroit intrigues and ingenious subterfuges were vehemently opposed by the emperor's wife, Josephine, who energetically denounced him as a "cursed cripple."

Poor Provider.

An old negro in Texas was asked if he was going to register. He wished to know how he would have to proceed. On being told that he had to swear to support the constitution, his eyes widened, and, drawing a long breath, he said he couldn't do it, because he couldn't support himself.

Too Quick With Comment.

Riggs (facetiously)—"This is a picture of my wife's first husband." Diggs—"Silly looking guy! But say, I didn't know your wife was married before she met you." Riggs—"She wasn't. This is a picture of myself when I was twenty-five."

OPEN AIR TREATMENT BY GENTRY BROS. SAVE SIMIANS

In the evolution of surgery and medicine the masters of these professions have resorted to the use of the lower animals in making tests by which the human family profits. The rabbit and the guinea pig are the lower animals in which the heart action is closest to that of the human being.

The monkey tribe, however, is the family in which the action of the lungs is closest to that of man. Monkeys are particularly susceptible to pulmonary tuberculosis, or consumption. Among monkeys the deadly white plague reaps its toll almost without resistance.

Several years ago the medical world evolved the theory that open air was the surest preventive for tuberculosis of the lungs. This scientific disclosure was quickly caught up by Gentry Bros., proprietors and owners of Gentry Bros. Famous Shows.

Conducting a trained animal exhibition that has arisen to the apex of fame, Gentry Bros. used monkeys. The loss among the simians from tuberculosis was appalling. When the fresh air treatment was expounded Gentry Brothers decided upon drastic moves. They decreed that monkeys for all time should live in open air.

Following this decision came a most remarkable demonstration of how nature provides for her own. Nature soon provided the simians, destined to open air in a northern winter, with heavy coats of hair. These coats were heavier than any ever before seen on monkeys. The monkeys were left in the open air all the year around, their only protection being a dry goods box. Since then Gentry Bros. have lost but two monkeys, whereas twenty-five was the usual toll of the plague in the winter.

The monkeys, strangely enough, welcome their new mode of living. All summer they are left in unconfined spaces. In winter they are offered only enough protection to break the wintry winds. The result is the simians are acclimated, there is no tuberculosis among them, and the only troupe of year-round open air monkeys in the world are with the Gentry Bros. Famous Shows, which will be in this city Saturday, Sept. 6.

WARRANT AGAINST PATROLMAN FRED LINK IS DISMISSED.

Upon a warrant charging him with the murder of Dave Milton, colored, Patrolman Fred Link was arrested yesterday morning by Sheriff A. S. Thompson, and at his examining trial held yesterday morning before Judge Denis Dundon in the County Court, the warrant was dismissed.

The killing of Milton occurred last Thursday morning in the negro suburb of Clayville, when Link, in company with Mag Overtree, a negro, went to the village in an effort to secure the clothing of the woman, who alleged Milton on several occasions had threatened her life and it was her desire to leave him.

Link attempted to halt the negro, who was going in the direction of the city, and when the latter attempted draw a revolver the officer fired, killing him instantly. Coroner Rudolph Davis held an inquest Thursday afternoon and the jury exonerated Link of all blame.

The warrant against Link was sworn out at the instance of County Attorney George Baterton, who conducted the prosecution. The morning was consumed in hearing the evidence in the case, and at noon court adjourned. In the afternoon Hon. F. M. Dickson made the argument for the defense while Mr. Baterton argued for the Commonwealth. The court ruled in the opinion that Link was acting in his official capacity and that from the evidence introduced and the points of law cited by the attorney for the defense, the killing of Milton was an act of self-defense and warrant was dismissed. Mr. Dickson and Attorney C. A. McMillan represented Link.

NEGROES IN FIGHT—ONE STABBED IN EYE.

In a difficulty which occurred at the fair grounds Saturday night during the progress of the colored fair, Clarence Henderson stabbed Clay Saunders in the left eye, inflicting a dangerous wound. Henderson was arrested by Patrolman G. N. McKenney and lodged in jail. Saunders' condition is not serious.

HANDS HORRIBLY BURNED BY FLAMES FROM GASOLINE.

Mistaking gasoline for water almost cost Sim Levy, proprietor of a tailoring and cleaning and cleaning establishment in this city, his life yesterday afternoon, and as a result he is confined to his home on Pleasant street, suffering with a number of severe burns.

A quantity of gasoline which had been used by one of the men in his employ had been left in a pan, and Levy, without ascertaining the contents of the pan, saturated his hands and placed it upon a small stove. Immediately the fluid caught fire and the hands of the unfortunate man were soon enveloped.

Before the blaze could be extinguished the flesh on both hands had been burned to a crisp. Suffering the most intense agony he made his way to the office of Drs. Fithian & Daugherty, where his injuries received attention, when he was removed to his home. Although suffering considerably from his injuries Mr. Levy is doing as well as could be expected.

WINCHESTER POLICEMAN WOUNDS DESPERATE NEGRO.

In a pistol duel at Winchester, Friday night, Policeman Dan Insko shot and probably fatally wounded Bud Bennett, of Spartansburg, S. C. Bennett was wounded twice, one shot taking effect in the left side, and another bullet broke his right leg. It is believed that Bennett robbed a night watchman in that city Friday morning after cutting him thirteen times with a knife.

MOTHER OF EIGHTEEN CHILDREN.

"I am the mother of eighteen children, and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat even a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 163 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to anyone in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain Tablets are sold by all dealers.
